

Bankruptcy & Restructuring

Image not found or type unknown

McLaughlin & Stern's West Palm Beach Bankruptcy & Restructuring department has served Palm Beach County since 2008. Leading the industry in complex financial restructuring and bankruptcy litigation as well as policy matters, our bankruptcy and restructuring lawyers offer each and every client unmatched experience, expertise, and personal attention.

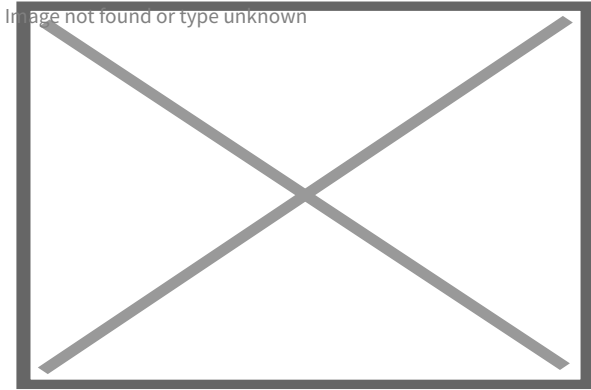

Through practical and innovative strategies, our West Palm Beach bankruptcy attorneys are able to resolve complicated financial matters while unearthing opportunities that may arise in difficult situations. Our objective is always to serve our clients with attentiveness and compassion, as we guide them towards achieving maximum returns.

Are you looking for experienced legal counsel in a bankruptcy or restructuring issue? Contact our law firm in West Palm Beach today for a free consultation!

Bankruptcy Lawyers in West Palm Beach

McLaughlin & Stern's West Palm Beach Bankruptcy & Restructuring department is led by Steven S. Newburgh, a veteran attorney with extensive experience in bankruptcy law. Mr. Newburgh is Chair of the Bankruptcy Bar Association, Southern District of Florida, West Palm Beach Division's Pro Bono Committee and represents bankruptcy trustees, creditors and select debtors, primarily in the United States Southern, Middle and Northern Districts of Florida. Mr. Newburgh has also handled bankruptcy matters on a pro hac vice basis in New York, Illinois and, most recently, in the State of Texas.

The Bankruptcy & Restructuring department works primarily on behalf of:

- Bankruptcy Trustees and Creditors
- Corporate Restructuring and Reorganization
- Bankruptcy Adversary Proceedings
- Creditors' Rights

Mr. Newburgh has significant experience in corporate and personal bankruptcy litigation, case administration, business reorganization and assignment for benefit of creditor proceedings. Mr. Newburgh also conducts monthly Pro Se clinics in the courtrooms of the West Palm Beach Division of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Florida, one of the most active Districts in the United States.

In addition, Mr. Newburgh was appointed by Chief U.S. Bankruptcy Judge, Laurel M. Isicoff, to serve on the United States Southern District of Florida Local Rules Committee. The Committee is responsible for revisions to the Local Rules of Federal Bankruptcy Procedure in the Southern District of Florida.

Combining their in-depth knowledge of the bankruptcy code and rules with extensive courtroom experience, our bankruptcy and restructuring attorneys are able to handle a broad scope of bankruptcy litigation and restructuring issues for corporate debtors and creditors. To learn more about our bankruptcy and restructuring services please contact us at 561-659-4020 and ask to be connected with our bankruptcy department.