Isabel is an associate in the Trusts and Estates department at McLaughlin & Stern, LLP. Isabel focuses her practice on estate planning for high-net-worth individuals and families, which often includes multi-generational and charitable planning. She also has experience with probate and estate and trust administration.

Isabel is a member of the Trusts, Estates and Surrogate Court's Committee for the New York City Bar. She earned her J.D. from the Wake Forest University School of Law, as a recipient of the Deans Merit Scholarship. While in law school, Isabel held a position as a Trusts and Estates teaching assistant and was a staff member on the Wake Forest Journal for Law and Policy. Isabel graduated from Emory University with a dual degree in Jewish Studies and International Studies. Isabel holds dual citizenship with the United States and Israel.
