Jason S. Giaimo is a partner in the litigation department where his practice focuses primarily in the areas of complex commercial litigation, civil litigation, and employment law. Jason has represented both businesses and individuals in commercial and civil litigation matters, including claims involving breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, tortious interference, unfair competition, wrongful termination, accounting malpractice, and consumer fraud claims. His employment litigation experience includes representing both plaintiffs and defendants in connection with claims arising under state and federal law, including the Fair Labor Standard Act.

Jason also regularly counsels clients in transactional matters, with a focus on litigation and contractual concerns. Such representations include counseling and negotiating contracts for real property managers, and distributors, purchasers, and sellers of consumer health products.

Some of Jason's representative experience includes the following:

- Prevailed on all claims in an arbitration before the American Arbitration Association on behalf of an offshore fund against a large private financial institution, including claims of breach of contract and breach of fiduciary duty;
- Represented a hedge fund in an accounting malpractice and negligence class action resulting in a settlement totaling $27.5 million;
- Represented a privately-held limited liability company and its principal in connection with a breach of contract and breach of fiduciary action against the managing member for, inter alia, misappropriation of assets, which resulted in a favorable settlement for the firm's client;

- Favorably settled a breach of contract action against a limited liability company arising out the limited liability company's sale of assets to a publicly-traded company pursuant to an asset purchase sale; and
- Represented a mutual insurance association in a limitation of liability action arising out of a total loss of the association's insured vessel.

Jason is a graduate of Indiana University and graduated magna cum laude from St. John's University School of Law. While in law school, Jason served as Senior Articles Editor for the St. John's Law Review.
