

Matrimonial and Family Law

McLaughlin & Stern's matrimonial and family law attorneys are among the best. We distinguish ourselves by actively representing our clients in all aspects of family and matrimonial law including high net-worth divorce; child support, custody and visitation; spousal support; nuanced business valuation and distribution issues; mediation; and appeals. Our experienced attorneys are also skilled at crafting tailored pre-marital and post-marital agreements. We work closely to provide undaunted advocacy through every step of a client's unique legal challenges. We are committed to resolving disputes amicably, as well as to litigating aggressively according to each client's needs. Our clients benefit also from our colleagues across the firm who are available to contribute their experience when needed in real estate, trust and estates, and tax and corporate issues.
